

16 Days of Activism Against
Gender-Based Violence

November 25
to December 10 2017

MY LIFE * MY BODY * MY EDUCATION

This year, Family Violence Law Center is participating in 16 Days of Activism Against Gender-Based Violence. The campaign is an international effort dedicated to ending gender-based violence.

The 2017 campaign theme is "Together We Can End Gender-Based Violence in Education." Each day, between November 25th and December 10th, we will post information or a call to action on Facebook. If you are not already following us, please click the Facebook link below.

Together we can end gender-based violence in education.

ABOUT THE 16 DAYS OF ACTIVISM TO END GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE

"The 16 Days Campaign is a global initiative that seeks to: raise awareness at the local, national and international levels regarding violence against women, strengthen local work, link local and global activism, provide a forum for dialogue and strategy-sharing, pressure governments to implement the commitments they have made in national and international legal instruments, and demonstrate the solidarity of activists around the world.

The start and end dates of the Campaign are November 25th, International Day for the Elimination of Gender-Based Violence, and December 10th, Human Rights Day. These dates were chosen to emphasize that gender-based violence is a violation of human rights. The Campaign is successful because of the activism of millions of women and tens of thousands of organizations worldwide, who are committed to ending gender-based violence."
