

FAMILY VIOLENCE LAW CENTER

Founded in 1978, Family Violence Law Center helps diverse communities in Alameda County heal from domestic violence and sexual assault, advocating for justice and healthy relationships. We provide survivor-centered legal and crisis intervention services, offer prevention education for youth and other community members, and engage in policy work to create systemic change.

IMPACT 2021-22

2,691 SURVIVORS

received crisis support and case management services

1,343 received legal services, an 8% increase from 20-21

FVLC RESPONDS TO THE HOUSING CRISIS

legal assistance and case management for survivors with housing issues

more than $250,000 provided to survivors for essential needs and to prevent homelessness helped secure emergency housing vouchers and more than $900,000 to support survivors in Alameda County

SYSTEMS CHANGE

policy advocacy to address systemic needs, grounded in FVLC's work with survivors

3 YOUTH LEADER COHORTS

"I think y'all should continue to offer RAPP to youth in Oakland because it gives students or participants an idea to think of some ways to build and make their communities better giving them a better view of the major problems in their communities." ~ Youth leader

Designed by Jess (FVLC Youth Leader)

Thank you to our generous donors!

We couldn't serve our communities without your support.

For more information, visit <https://fvlc.org/>

ACCOUNTABILITY 2021-22

FUNDING SOURCES

GOVERNMENT GRANTS 85.9%
INDIVIDUALS AND CORPORATIONS 7.5%
FOUNDATIONS 5.6%
OTHER 1%

EXPENDITURES

PROGRAMS 66.8%
SUBGRANTS 25.6%
CLIENT ASSISTANCE FUNDS 6.5%
MANAGEMENT & GENERAL 1.1%