

FAMILY VIOLENCE LAW CENTER

Founded in 1978, Family Violence Law Center helps diverse communities in Alameda County heal from domestic violence and sexual assault, advocating for justice and healthy relationships. We provide survivor-centered legal and crisis intervention services, offer prevention education for youth and other community members, and engage in policy work to create systemic change.

IMPACT 2023-24

2,049

received crisis support and case management services

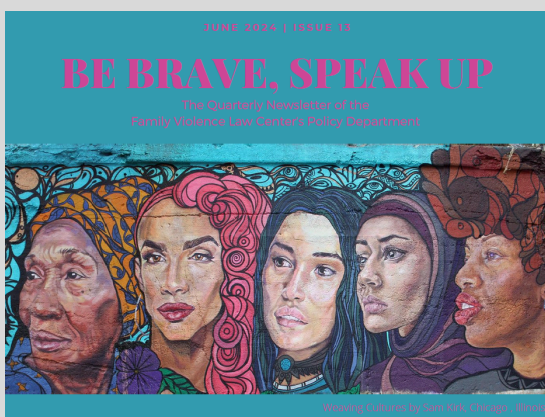

979 received legal services

FVLC RESPONDS TO THE HOUSING CRISIS

legal assistance and case management was provided for 350 survivors with housing issues

more than $280,000 provided to survivors for essential needs and to prevent homelessness

SYSTEMS CHANGE

policy advocacy to address systemic needs, grounded in FVLC's work with survivors

GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE EDUCATION

455 youth at 7 Oakland Unified School District high schools were provided with 420 hours of service and 950 youth engaged in group support services

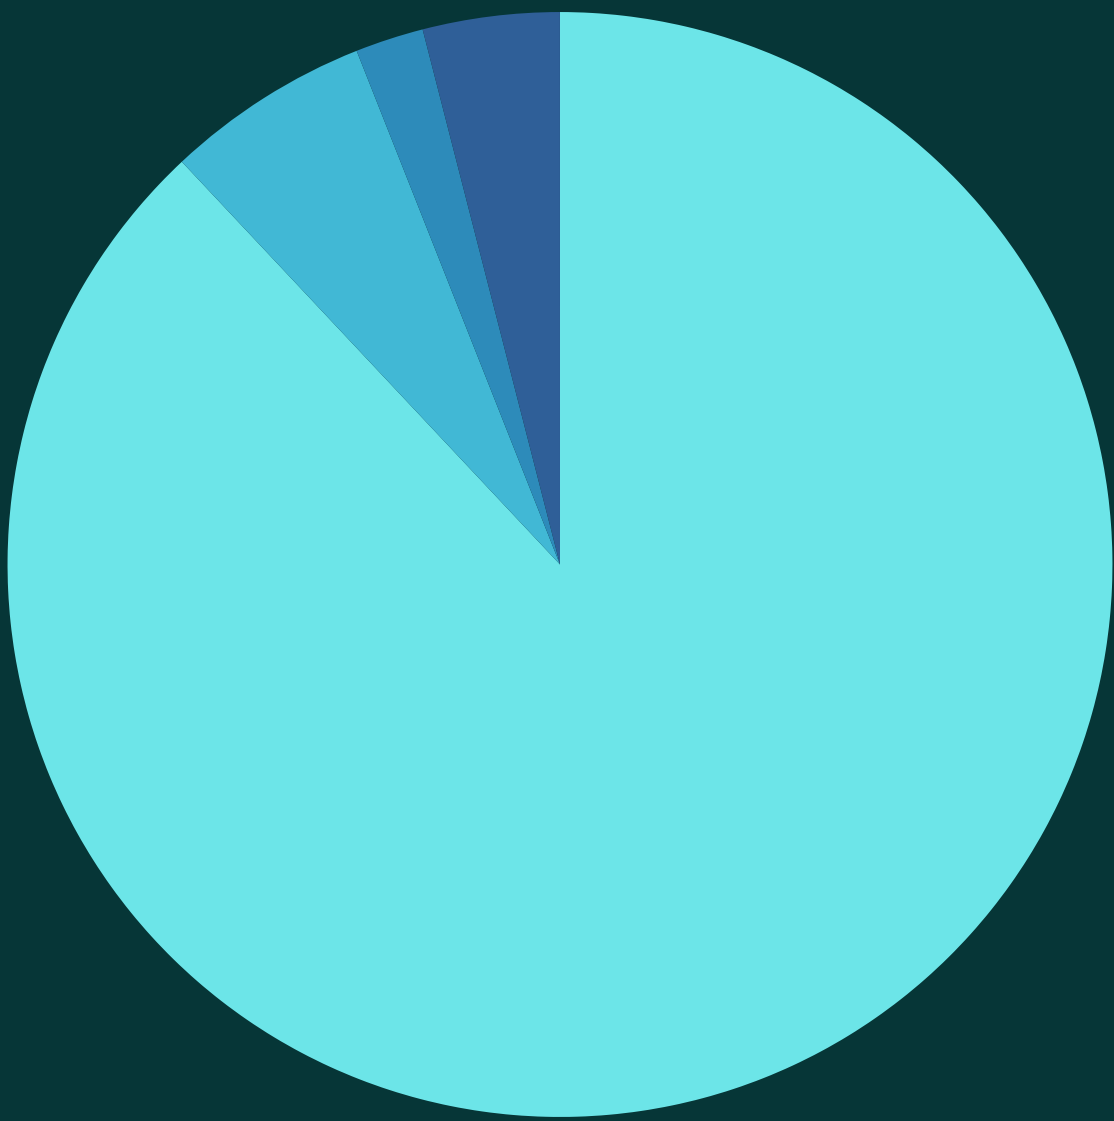

Thank you to our generous donors!

We couldn't serve our communities without your support.

For more information, visit <https://fvlc.org/>

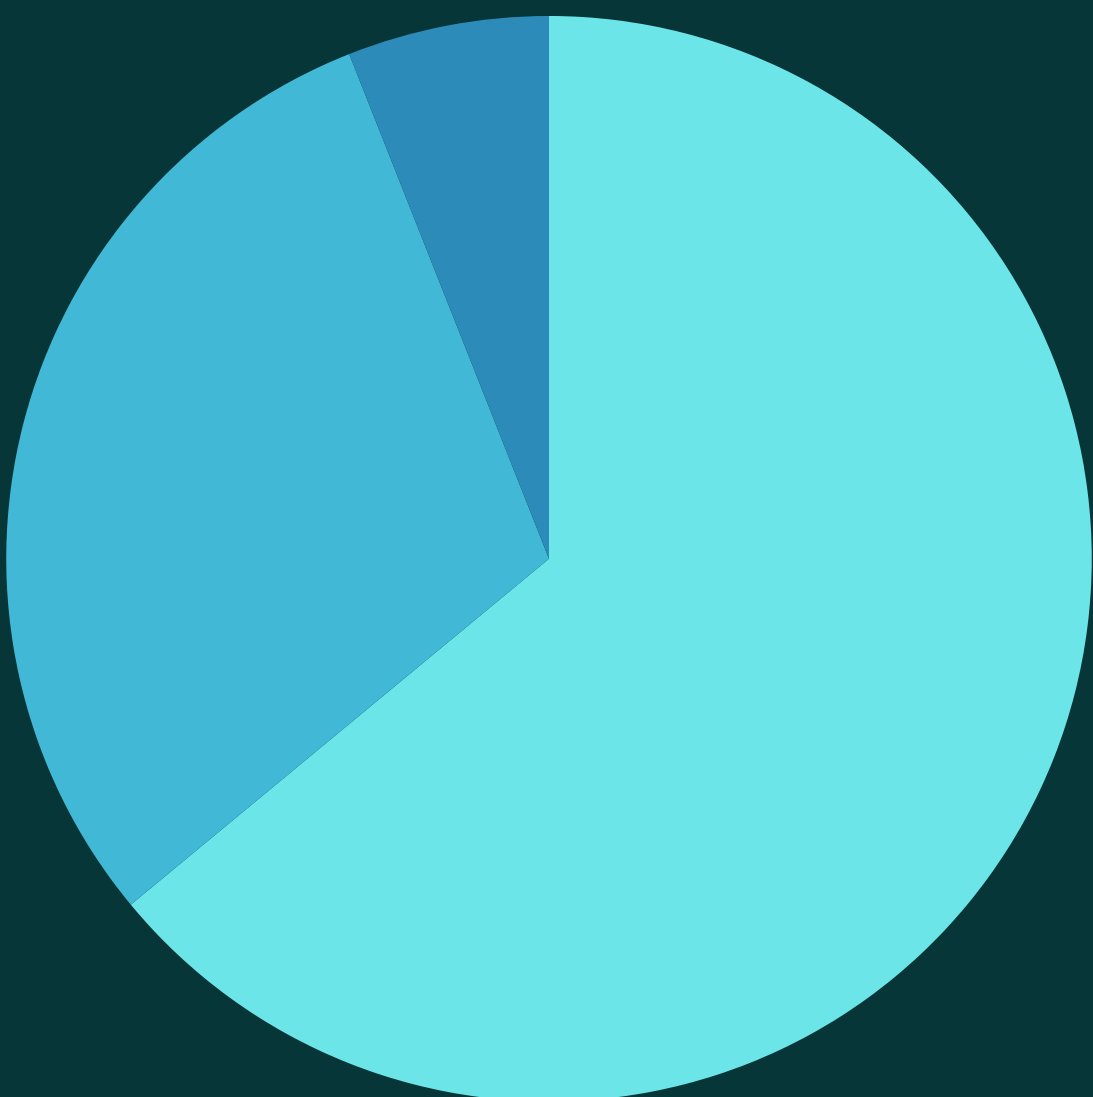

ACCOUNTABILITY 2023-24

FUNDING SOURCES

GOVERNMENT GRANTS 88%
INDIVIDUALS AND CORPORATIONS 2%
FOUNDATIONS 6%
OTHER 4%

EXPENDITURES

PROGRAMS 64%
SUBGRANTS 30%
CLIENT ASSISTANCE FUNDS 6%